This Instruction:

1. Reissues reference (a) to establish administrative arrangements, reimbursement and billing procedures, and a method to compute the dollar value of credits due the United States for the support of international military activities.
2. Assigns responsibilities for the support of international organizations, and identifies reimbursable and nonreimbursable support.
3. Identifies the support that DoD Components can expect to receive from international military organizations and whether such support is on a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis.
4. Establishes policies for financing the U.S. contributions to and the receipt of credits from the international military organizations in which the U.S. participates.
5. Establishes policies for paying U.S. personnel employed by international military organizations, and for verifying the credits received from the organizations for such personnel.
6. Does not apply to the provision of intelligence or cryptologic support provided under authorities other than those cited herein.

B. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE

The provisions of this Instruction apply to the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), the Military Departments, the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Unified and Specified Commands, the Defense Agencies, and activities administratively supported by OSD (hereafter called "DoD Components"). The term, "Military Service," as used herein, refers to the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps.

C. DEFINITIONS

The terms used in this Instruction are defined in enclosure 2.

D. POLICY

1. The Department of Defense provides nonreimbursable support to international military organizations in two forms: (a) through a financial contribution to the budget of the international organization, or (b) by assignment of U.S. military elements to the international organization under the terms of international treaties or agreements. The definition of an international agreement and the authority under which one may be negotiated is set forth in DoD Directive 5530.3 (reference (b)). U.S. military elements may be assigned either on a long- or short-term basis. Typically, short-term assignments would be for the purpose of participating in a joint exercise or maneuvers conducted under the auspices of the international organization. Support under forms (a) and (b), above, are not reimbursable to the Department of Defense. As an exception to this policy, when members of the U.S. military element provide services which were included in the budget of the international organization, for example, a U.S. military member occupies an international civilian billet, then the support shall be reimbursable (see section F., below).

2. All other support provided to the international military organization and to military elements of participating foreign countries is reimbursable to the performing DoD Component, and must be provided under one of the authorities described in subsections F.2., F.3., or F.4. of this Instruction.

3. The U.S. military element of an international military organization shall be supported by the international organization and the administrative agent on a nonreimbursable basis. Other military units in the area, including units of the administrative agent, also may receive support from the international organization, but on a reimbursable basis. When such military units receive support, a support agreement shall be drawn up between the Military Department concerned and the international organization.

E. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) (ASD(C)) shall designate the administrative agent who is to support U.S. military elements at an international military organization. Current designations are provided in enclosure 3 to this Instruction.

2. The Secretary of the Army shall program and budget the annual U.S. contributions to the various North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) bodies in the Army Operations and Maintenance (O&M) appropriation, with two exceptions. The Secretary of the Air Force shall budget for the NATO Airborne Early Warning and Control (AEWC) Force and the NATO Airborne Early Warning Program Management Agency (NAPMA).

3. The Administrative Agent shall:

a. Budget for the U.S. contributions to designated non-NATO international military organizations. When Army is not the administrative agent for a NATO body, the designated agent shall provide the Army with program and budget information on the annual contribution for inclusion in the Army's O&M appropriation. The NATO AEWC Force and NAPMA are exceptions to this policy.

b. Coordinate with appropriate U.S. representatives at the international military organizations to ensure that effective procedures and controls are prescribed for budgeting, obligating, disbursing, and receiving credits incident to administering the U.S. contributions.

c. Program and allocate resources in a manner that will provide the international organization with the highest possible level of support under section D., subsections F.2., F.3., or F.4. of this Instruction consistent with financial constraints that may be imposed through the normal program and budget process.

d. Support U.S. military elements attached to the designated international military organization on a nonreimbursable basis, unless the support is an international budget cost or is a budget responsibility of another Military Department (see subsection E.4.). The standards and directives of the administrative agent shall govern the level and type of support furnished. Support requirements based upon input provided by the U.S. military element shall be included in the administrative agent's annual budget. In carrying out this support responsibility, the administrative agent shall ensure that no parallel support facility is established when the support may be performed economically by local sources (see DoD Directive 4000.19, reference (c)).

e. Provide U.S. military elements, which are Tables of Organization and Equipment (TO&E) or equivalent units, with replacement issues of consumable and nonconsumable material, obtaining peculiar items when necessary from supply systems of the assigning Military Service on a reimbursable basis.

f. Provide U.S. military elements, which are Tables of Distribution (TD) or equivalent units, with both initial and replacement issues of consumable and nonconsumable material.

g. Establish table of allowances, unit allowance lists, base allowance lists, and other entitlement documents for U.S. military elements attached to the international military organization.

h. Budget for the cost of civilian employees of the U.S. Government assigned to positions in the international military organization. These employees shall retain their status as U.S. employees and be paid from U.S. funds at the U.S. scale of pay and allowances.<sup>1</sup> However, since such employees are filling international positions, their pay and allowances at the appropriate international pay scale shall be budgeted by the international military organization to which they are assigned. A sum equal to the amount of such pay and allowances at the international scale shall be collected from the international organization and reflected in the reimbursable portion of the DoD budget. The DoD direct budget shall absorb any differences.

<sup>1</sup>U.S. civilians who occupy positions in international military organizations on a direct hire basis (not as U.S. Government employees), as provided for by E.O. 11633 (reference (d)), will be governed by the provisions of that order and other applicable U.S. Government regulations that deal with such employment. They shall be remunerated by the international military organization concerned at the applicable international pay scale and shall have no entitlement to pay and allowances or benefits of U.S. Government employees.

4. The Secretary of a Military Department with military personnel assigned to a U.S. military element shall:

a. Budget and fund for personnel costs of its military personnel included in the U.S. military element.

b. Budget and fund for personally assigned equipment provided to its military personnel included in the U.S. military element.

c. Make initial issuance to its component units of U.S. military elements which are TO&E or equivalent units.

d. Finance requirements that are considered essential for military personnel assigned to the U.S. military element, but that cannot be obtained from the administrative agent because of budgetary constraints.

e. Budget and fund component-peculiar requirements, such as flying qualifications, medical examinations, personnel training and development, and social actions, of Military Department personnel.

f. Support other requirements. Costs shall be chargeable to the administrative agent on an interservice (reimbursable) basis.

g. Provide appropriate support to foreign military elements or to international military organizations in accordance with subsections F.2., F.e., or F.4. unless identified in this Instruction as items of nonreimbursable support.

5. The Head of a U.S. Military Element shall support the international military organization on a nonreimbursable basis, except for the costs of a military member who is assigned to an international civilian position, or when such support requires augmentation of the Element's normal manpower, equipment, or other resources from other U.S. sources.

6. The Head of a DoD Component shall support the international military organization and participating foreign countries on a reimbursable basis, in accordance with the Arms Export Control Act (reference (e)) or NATO Mutual Support Act (reference (f)), unless otherwise specified in this Instruction.

7. The Commander of a Unified Command shall coordinate the activities of the administrative agents concerned in implementing this Instruction within areas of Command jurisdiction.

8. The Head of an International Military Organization supports U.S. military elements on a nonreimbursable basis for those support areas set forth in the scope of the budget for international military headquarters and agencies (enclosure 4).

F. PROCEDURES

1. Reimbursements due the United States from international military organizations for U.S. personnel, military or civilian, occupying international civilian positions.

a. A sum equal to the pay and allowances established for the occupied positions at the international scale shall be credited to the United States as an offset to the U.S. contribution to the international organization.

(1) The administrative agent shall determine the amount of credit due and initiate a quarterly SF 1080, Voucher for Transfer Between Appropriations and/or Funds, to transfer funds from the U.S. contribution to the international budget to the applicable financing DoD appropriation.

(2) As an exception to this offset credit procedure, international military organizations located in the continental United States (CONUS) to which contributions are made in U.S. dollars shall make direct reimbursement of the international pay and allowance equivalent to the administrative agent for any U.S. personnel assigned to international civilian positions.

b. The administrative agent shall screen the personnel administration and payroll computations for U.S. employees, as performed by the international organization to ensure the accuracy and sufficiency of data and credits granted.

2. Reimbursements due the United States from international military organizations for reimbursable support provided pursuant to the Arms Export Control Act (reference (e)). When DoD services are performed, articles delivered from inventory or new procurement initiated under the authority of reference (e), pricing and billing shall be in accordance with DoD 7290.3-M (reference (g)).

3. Reimbursements due the United States from international military organizations for reimbursable support provided pursuant to the NATO Mutual Support Act (reference (f)). When DoD services are performed or articles delivered from inventory under authority of reference (g), pricing shall be in accordance with DoD Instruction 2010.10 (reference (h)) and billing shall be in accordance with the international agreement negotiated in accordance with DoD Directive 2010.9 (reference (i)).

4. Reimbursements due the United States from international military organizations for reimbursable support provided under authorities other than the Arms Export Control Act (reference (e)) or the NATO Mutual Support Act of 1979 (reference (f)).

a. Leases of real and personal property are authorized by 10 U.S.C. 2667 (reference (j)) and shall be priced in accordance with DoD Instruction 7230.7 (reference (k)). Property with a life expectancy of less than 3 years or a value of less than $1,000 will not be leased, but must be provided on a sales basis under subsections F.2. or F.3., above. In the event DoD services or materiel are provided under authorities other than references (e), (f), or (j), the DoD Component providing that support shall obtain a legal opinion supporting the use of such other legal authority before providing the service or materiel. The legal opinion shall be retained for audit verification.

b. The designated official of the DoD Component furnishing the support shall:

(1) Originate promptly and in detail an SF 1080, billing the administrative agent or the designated coordinating agent.

(2) Prepare the invoice for reimbursable support on the basis of constructive delivery.

(3) Distribute the SF 1080s as follows:

(a) Submit two copies of the SF 1080a, with supporting detail, to the international military organization receiving the services or materiel for verification of the charge.

(b) Forward the original (disbursement SF 1080a) and the collection copy (SF 1080b), without supporting detail, to the administrative agent or the designated coordinating agent.

(c) Retain the additional copies, with supporting detail as may be required by the billing office, pending receipt of executed vouchers.

c. The administrative agent or the designated coordinating agent shall (1) request the comptroller of the NATO command or the appropriate international organization concerned to provide a monthly listing of charges that have been accepted; and (2) ensure that such charges are reflected as offset credits to the United States in the callup of contributions to the international budgets.

d. The coordinating agent shall match the monthly listing of accepted charges with outstanding SF 1080s, and process the SF 1080s for accepted charges as payments to the billing office. Upon receipt of the validated SF 1080s, the billing office shall process the collection.

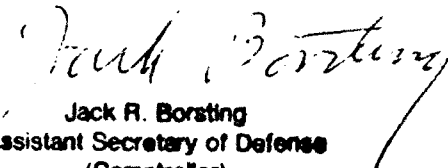

e. The designated coordinating agent shall verify that the offset credits are applied to the U.S. contributions to the international organization through a reconciliation of individual SF 1080 billings to the monthly list of accepted charges.

f. As an exception to the above procedure, when materiel or services are furnished to international military organizations that are located within the CONUS and to which contributions are made in U.S. dollars, the U.S. military activity providing the support shall be responsible for billing the international military organization directly, and obtaining reimbursement in U.S. dollars.

DEFINITIONS

1. International Military Organizations. International military headquarters and related agencies in which the United States participates on the basis of international agreements and understandings (see enclosure 3).

2. International Budget Costs. Costs which are normally accepted into the international budgets of the international military organizations, as outlined in enclosure 4.

3. National Budget Costs. Costs which normally are not accepted into the international budgets.

4. U.S. Military Element. A U.S. military organization which meets each of the following criteria:

a. Is assigned for duty with and for the benefit of an international activity.

b. Has some or all of its members assigned to positions included in the approved staffing of the international military organization concerned. It may have personnel assigned who do not fill international positions, but normally are engaged in performing support functions for the element.

c. Is an Army TO&E or TD-type unit or an equivalent Air Force, Navy, or Marine unit.

5. Personally Assigned Equipment. Any article that is assigned to an individual by name, for his or her exclusive use, and that moves with that individual. This does not include items assigned for the exclusive use of an individual which attach to the functions of his or her office and are included in appropriate organizational documents.

6. Administrative Agent. The Military Department charged with determining U.S. national requirements and providing logistical and administrative support to a U.S. military element in a specific area (see enclosure 3).

7. Coordinating Agent. The headquarters designated by a Military Department to be responsible for budgetary and financial administration involved in making contributions to, and receiving credits from, the international military organization.

SCOPE OF BUDGET FOR INTERNATIONAL MILITARY HEADQUARTERS AND AGENCIES

The international budget shall include the types of costs, except as limited by exclusions in the following paragraphs, in such order and form as may be determined by the appropriate financial reviewing authorities. This list is not necessarily complete and is illustrative of the costs accepted by the NATO Military Budget Committee as an international charge. The Comptroller of the international military organization concerned and the U.S. representative shall be consulted if there is doubt whether the cost of any article or service is properly an international charge.

A. Civilian Personnel, Administrative Staff. Pay and authorized allowances of personnel employed by an international headquarters for the performance of international functions, including secretarial, clerical, or technical assistance. For U.S. military and civilian personnel, see F.1. of basic Instruction.

B. Civilian Personnel, Operational Staff. Pay and authorized allowance of personnel locally hired for custodial, industrial, or operational purposes, including upkeep of the premises and fixed or movable equipment used by the headquarters or its support units or fixed installations, supervision or operation of headquarters' fixed and movable equipment other than office equipment, and operation of headquarters enlisted mess facilities.

C. Rents and Maintenance. Rental of office space, barracks, warehouses, and other commercial-type buildings, including taxes; cost of utilities, liquid and solid fuels, sewage and garbage disposal service; supplies and material for janitorial and hygienic services (national support unit barracks excluded); and supplies, material, and contractual expenses for maintenance, repair, and minor alterations to buildings and facilities, including replacement of minor installations and fixed equipment when damaged or worn beyond repair.

D. Operation of General Services. Stationary and general office supplies for the headquarters and all units assigned in direct support; rental of office equipment required to supplement available equipment in accordance with internationally approved standards; printing, binding, and reproduction; purchase of maps, charts, and terrain models for peacetime use; newspapers, periodicals, and library supplies; photo supplies and photographic processing; and drugs and other expendable medical supplies for first aid stations.

E. Communications. Procurement and installation of switchboards, radio transmitters and receivers, telephone exchanges, and mobile communications equipment including related signal vehicles; rental of commercial-type equipment for additional requirements; repair and maintenance of communications equipment, including supplies and spare parts; cost of commercial communications, including installation and reinstallation charges for leased or other use of local, national, and international telephone, telegraph, and teletype circuits; and postage and postal fees.

F. Transportation. Rental or purchase of passenger and cargo vehicles; petroleum, oil, and lubricant products for such vehicles and other equipment used in direct support of international headquarters; supplies and spares required for organizational maintenance of vehicles and related equipment; commercial freight, local hauling, and express charges for internationally procured supply and equipment items, including shipping charges for contribution-in-kind from member nations to place of receipt.

G. Travel of International Staff

1. Civilian Personnel. Transportation and per diem costs of temporary duty travel on official business.

2. U.S. Military Personnel. When traveling on official business under travel orders issued by an authorized international headquarters that directs payment to be charged to international funds, the costs of such travel are payable as follows:

a. From international funds. Cost of transportation furnished by Military Airlift Command and/or a common carrier, to include taxi fares and privately owned conveyances under previously approved conditions.

b. From U.S. appropriated funds. Per diem and other expenses authorized by U.S. travel regulations.

H. Exercises and Maneuvers. When directly related to an allied command training exercise, the cost of commercial communication services and facilities provided solely to fill a requirement of the exercise on behalf of the participating nations; civilian labor hired in connection with the exercise by the interallied headquarters and not specifically for any one nation; temporary installations for interallied field headquarters not available from organic equipment of participating troops or the headquarters and not properly chargeable to the host nation; rental of additional commercial transportation required at interallied headquarters for the exercise; utilities costs for interallied headquarters if at a place other than an existing military post; and reproduction of photographs and film strips, required by the directing staff for subsequent international training or critique purposes, when source of production is other than a military unit.

I. Representational and Hospitality Expenses of the Supreme Commanders for international purposes.

J. Contingencies. Claims for losses by fire, theft, and other damages; and costs to employ legal representation in civil court actions.

K. Construction. Design and new construction of buildings and facilities, including housing, structures, utilities, modification, and alteration of existing buildings and facilities, including fixed equipment, sewage, gas, water, and electrical supply systems, roads, and approaches.

Sep 2, 81
2010.1 (Encl 4)

L. Furniture and Equipment. Office furniture and equipment procured within internationally approved standards for the direct support of international headquarters and agency activities; equipment for maintenance of kitchens, shops, heating electrical plants; and furniture used in barracks, messes, recreation rooms, and dining rooms and clubs.
